Welcome

This year we are very pleased to welcome our guest speaker Joe Saxton, NFP Synergy, who will be talking about sustainability in the sector. He will also be delivering an exciting double seminar.

The programme has something for all groups, whether you are looking for that initial source of funding to get started or a more established group considering contracts and tendering.

We hope you enjoy the day, pick up lots of information and have a chance to network over lunch with other groups and funders.

How to win £500!

1 & 2

Joe Saxton,
NFP Synergy

What difference would £500 make to your group?

In this double seminar your group will have the chance to pitch for £500. Delegates will vote for their favourite to win. Joe Saxton who will be presenting this double seminar works on a range of specific projects particularly those looking at impact, communications and trusteeship.

Max delegates: 60

The Sessions

Big Lottery Fund

1

The Big Lottery Fund gives to groups and to projects that improve health, education and the environment. With new programmes always being introduced the session will keep everyone updated.

Lloyds TSB Foundation

2

Lloyds TSB Foundation is set up to support charities that help disadvantaged people play a fuller role in the community. The session is aimed at registered charities.

Planning for Changing Times

3

The challenges facing the voluntary sector in the current economic climate are unprecedented. Michael Bevan an experienced funding advisor and bid writer from the RBWM will talk on planning ahead.

Securing Funding from Business

3

Abbott, a large pharmaceutical company from Maidenhead will be presenting a session on securing funding through business.

Successful Tendering

4

Being able to compete for contracts is now even more crucial than ever! Dave Furze will be presenting this workshop on understanding commissioning, tendering and techniques to give your group a better chance.

Bid Writing for Beginners

4

With a number of years experience as a funding advisor Dave Soper will pass on some of the many tips and pitfalls for completing funding applications.
