ABOUT SLOUGH CVS

SCVS exists to promote and co-ordinate local voluntary action to help improve the quality of life of people in Slough and make a positive difference in the community.

We do this by:

- Providing the support and development local voluntary organisations require to achieve their objectives
- Bringing local community groups together to share resources and improve effectiveness
- Being a focal point - focusing attention on the voluntary sector and representing its interests to outside parties

SCVS is committed to promoting equal opportunities for all people regardless of race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, disability, age, class or geographical location.

SCVS has a fundamental belief in developing equal opportunities in all areas of its work and structure, and in particular will take positive action in the areas of representing the voluntary sector in service delivery, in employment practices and consultation.
